Steamers are now arriving frequ atly and bringing over the usual large number. of native passengers who come over for the approaching tea season. I have seen In the original prospectus it was stated samples of the new season's tea to be that there were 27 mines, ready to be shipped on native account, and they were Summer is stready beginning and in

SOUTH FORMOSA

A correspondent writes to the N.-C. Daily News on the 11th April as follows :- The savages are up again ! The treaty recently in small sums to about 29 different mining | made, by which peace at any price was Kongsis, all reported safe except the $2,424 supposed to have been secured, has suddenly staff had been increased from 2 to 3, owing aborigines are hot on the war-path! The to the distance between the mines and common people assert that the rupture was headquarfers, so that two could be at the brought about by treachery on the part of mines and the other at the offices. The one of the Chinese officials towards two Directors must congratulate Mr Dunnian Bho-tans. The official account of the same on the way in which he had worked for the is that the chi-hsien of Hungcheng had Company. The Government had promised made two savages prisoners for offences for the incurable these asylums furnish a to put the roads in better condition; rail- committed against the laws, and confined way communication would be catablished them in his yamen; but the report is quite before the end of the year with Serambang, silent as to the causes which led to the arrest or the manner in which it was carri-Mr Sohet hoped there would be a better od out. Which is the true account it is road from Jolehu to the mines. Had the impossible at present to decide, but both work begun? Also, as the concessions were parties agree in their description of the Physicians have also established private only for a limited time, something ought to consequences, namely :- a level en masse of Oh! well for the beardless boy be written off for depreciation of concest the tribes, and a march against the district city, which was completely invested. The Oh | well for the amouth-faced lad magistrate was summoned to deliver up the prisoners immediately, or the besiggers would proceed at once to attack and sack The retiring directors, Mr Hooper and the city, putting every one to the sword. present at the time; so the heien, in the exercise of a wise discretion, for which he thanks to the chairman, directors, and will probably suffer, however, complied Scrape, scrape scrape. with the demands, and what is more, feasted his assailants plenteously on pork But the painless joys of those rezorless days and samshu. The revelries being over, the Bhotans quietly departed, taking the rescued with them, whereupon the chi-hsien promptly reported the whole proceedings only just returned from a rather disastrous campaign on the north-east coast, where, besides being badly beaten he had lost planned, and troops to the number of five thousand have been sent overland, and by water to Tainanfoo. The transport Harching has been employed for the last fortnight in making daily trips between Tainanfoo. and Lankiao, the nearest port to the score of operations; each time carrying down as many troops and as much ammunition as she could take. The force appears to be woll supplied with arms of the latest pattern, including a largenumber of war-rockets, on which latter the Governor is said to pin great faith. On dit, however, the soldiers are a little afraid of using them, as in their hands the rockets have hitherto been apt to prove too impartial in their effects. To obviate this, as far as possible, a detachment of thirty or forty Cantonese, trained in the use of rockets, have accompanied the expedition. Some of the troops that have come down from the north appear a fine body of men, and seem to have been foreign drilled. But the majority are the distance behind His Majesty followed the up native regiments. The most effective usual 'teg-rag and bob-tail' that go to make force, however, that has been sent forward is supplied by a friendly aboriginal, named Lim, from the district of Changwha, who 7th April, the Tombs were reached, and has raised a band of 500 men from amongst his retainers. These latter are well used to savage warfare, and being undoubtedly brave are likely to prove effective allies Limis the same man who, during the French most of the work in that campaign. commander-in-chief of the present expedition gives out that he intends this time to exterminate the whole Bhotan tribe, r opening communication with Pilam on the east coast, but as we have heard this boast so often before, and so frequently seen if unfulfilled, we are naturally somewhat increjulous as to its accomplishment being во псат. -old Leaf, 100 fine ... The truth is that, so long as the Chinese contout themselves with desultory and vicarious campaigns, ceasing operations as soon as the savages retire to their mountain fastnesses, from whence they keep up a brisk guerilla attack on their assailants, no practical advance towards the subjugation of BAROMETER- 9 A.M. 29.95 the aboriginals can be looked for. When the Government realises what all other nations, under similar circumstances, have found essential, namely, that a first necessity is a line of frontier forts, to be gradually pushed forward, together with good roads, and other means for quickly transporting troops from one point to another, semething may be hoped for. Until then, however, nothing but unsatisfactory and even disastrous results, while engaging to pertinacious and fince a fee as the savages undoubtedly are, can be expected. B.B. the Governor seems to be hopelessly crippled for want of funds, and it appears to tax all his energies to keep up even these perpetually recurring and hitherto ineffeclive demonstrations of military activity. and striving to gless over troublesome northern inquiry by the glowing reports for which his various expeditions are made to supply material. Compare the actual state of affairs now : the savages triumphant all along the line from north to south, their fr ntiers extended, and indeed only persuaded to keep within these by dint of heavy bribes and concession, with the memorial sent up to Peking, just after the French blockade, describing the advances made by the Chinese forces all over aboriginal territory, the inhabitants of which were eagerly begging for razors to shave their heads, and thus be enabled to exhibit the sign of Manchu supremacy. It has been authoritatively announced that Dr. Merks, late Assistant in the Amoy Consulate, is to come to Taiwanfoo as German Vice Consul, but whother he remains
